County Commissioner Dan Gauthier introduced David Jagst who will take over representing Alcona Township in January. Dan informed the board that he had a zoom meeting with many people concerning broad band internet and it is looking positive for Alcona County.

Supervisor MacNeill will get more information in hopes of applying for a grant for a new pavilion at the Black River Park area.

Clerk LaLonde reported that Alcona Township had 69% voter turnout for the general election. The election inspectors work very hard and do an outstanding job for Alcona Township.

Trustee Bouchard will remove the flags from the cemetery after Veteran's Day.

Meeting adjourned at 6:24

Respectfully Submitted,

Dawn LaLonde
